Mcdodo PC-1890 transparent magnetic case for iPhone 12/12 Pro, Magsafe

Stock up on a stylish, durable case and ensure reliable protection for your iPhone 12 or 12 Pro. The PC-1890 will protect your phone from damage without affecting the user experience. The accessory is also equipped with 38 magnets, making it possible to inductively charge your smartphone and use magnetic holders.

Reliable protection

Have confidence that your phone is safe. The case was made of high-quality PC and TPU, so it effectively protects your smartphone from scratches and damage from drops or bumps. The manufacturer also made sure that the smartphone's screen and cameras are properly protected.

38 magnets

You no longer need to remove your iPhone from the case to charge it wirelessly or use the magnetic holder. The Mcdodo brand accessory is equipped with 38 magnets, which guarantee impressive pulling power. This allows you to conveniently use inductive chargers and holders, as well as MagSafe stands.
