Cabel HDMI - HDMI Vention 4K60HZ 2m (black)

Enjoy great picture quality and don't let any detail escape you. The HDMI cable from Vention supports high resolution 4K / 60 Hz - providing exceptional richness of detail and crisp colors. It also guarantees perfect synchronization of video and audio - great for watching movies and playing games. The product is also very durable and wear-resistant. It is equipped with gold-plated connectors and zinc alloy components, which, like the nylon braid, protect it from damage.

Multiple applications

The HDMI cable will prove itself in many applications. With its help, for example, you can connect a TV box or a game console to your TV. The product also allows you to hook up your laptop to a larger screen and supports 2 display modes - Copy (image duplication) and Expansion (expansion). So you can comfortably watch a movie or give a presentation at work! You also don't have to worry about signal quality problems - the copper cable with triple shielding ensures reliable transmission and high resistance to interference.
