Headphones TWS OneOdio Monitor 60 (black)

Oneodio Monitor 60 headphones

The Oneodio Monitor 60 headphones will find their use both in everyday life for listening to music and watching movies, as well as in the recording studio or at a concert. They stand out for their Hi-Res level sound and foldable design. They provide long-lasting comfort, and the included cables let you connect them to a compatible device. Plus, you can share music by connecting 2 pairs of headphones together.

Impressive sound quality

The Oneodio Monitor 60 headphones offer richly detailed Hi-Res class sound and are equipped with 50mm drivers. They will work well for music recording, post production, video editing, etc. They will also appeal to DJs.

Compatible

Smartphone, laptop, tablet, computer, game console, or maybe an audio amplifier? You can successfully connect the Oneodio Monitor 60 headphones to these devices. The set comes with 3 audio cables: 3.5 - 3.5 mm, 3.5 - 3.5 mm with microphone and 3.5 - 6.35 mm, with which you can connect them to the equipment of your choice. In addition, it is possible to connect 2 pairs of headphones, so you can share music with the person of your choice.
