Remax Phone Stand, RM-C11

The Remax RM-C11 is a practical accessory that allows you to use your phone easily and comfortably without holding it in your hand. It allows you to stably place your smartphone on a table, desk or other surface and provides convenience while watching videos or using apps. The stand is designed for phones and tablets, allows comfortable rotation of 720° and provides solid support, so you don't have to worry about your device falling.

For the sake of your comfort

Holding your phone in your hand for long periods of time can be tiring, so if you're watching a movie or streaming online, place your device on the stand and enjoy full freedom of movement. The stand offers an adjustable angle, so you can successfully adjust it to your needs. The mount doesn't block your view of the screen and provides easy access to the charging port, so you can use your device while charging.

Full stabilization

The product is made of high-quality materials. It is well-balanced and offers a 150mm panel on which to place your device. The anti-slip finish further protects your device from falling, so you don't have to worry about damaging it.
