ONIKUMA X25 Headphones.

Looking for stylish headphones with cool lighting effects? Do you value comfort and quality? Do you love to play and talk with your band? ONIKUMA X25 headphones are a great choice for you! Featuring large earcups lined with memory foam and LED lights in both earcups, microphone and headband, the ONIKUMA X25 will further enhance your gaming experience! Thanks to the ergonomic shape and skin-friendly materials, you can use the headphones for long hours without discomfort! And the microphone equipped with ambient noise cancellation will ensure that your team will hear your cues flawlessly.

Full comfort

The ONIKUMA X25 headphones are designed to make you feel comfortable even during hours of use. The large, comfortable ear cups have been padded with a skin-pleasing material to avoid flare-ups or discomfort. The sponges on both earcups have been created with shape-memorizing foam to fit you even better. The headphones also have an adjustable function in the headband, thanks to which they will lie comfortably on your head.

Feel the childlike joy

Wearing glowing headphones will give you a sense of childlike joy - shimmering with various colors that light up the room in the dark, ONIKUMA X25 headphones give a sensational effect and improve the mood. Stand out and show your team the dazzling light effects!

Host an evening party with them, where everyone wears glowing headphones and party to your favorite rhythms!

Immersive gaming experience

You can tune the ONIKUMA X25 headphones about your needs - adjust the high, low and mid frequencies to further immerse yourself in the world of gaming. On the cable of the headphones there is a panel with the help of which you can conveniently control the volume and also turn the microphone on and off (it can be bent in different directions).

Versatility

Do you like gadgets, but are not a fan of games? ONIKUMA X25 headphones can be used not only for gaming on PC, Nintendo Switch, PS Vita, Xbox, Playstation and many others, but also for watching movies, listening to music or making calls. These headphones support Mini Jack and USB input devices making them very versatile, and using them will bring you joy whether you are an avid gamer, music lover, movie lover or love to chat with friends online!
