Equipped with a precision 50-millimeter neodymium magnet, the ONIKUMA K19 Camou offer excellent sound quality that will make it even easier for you to immerse yourself in the virtual world for more adventures and wins! The headphones also feature a great quality geometric shaped microphone with noise cancellation so your team can hear you clearly. Top it off with a stylish artistic design that will make you stand out among your friends!

Fantastic sound

The ONIKUMA K19 Camou headphones are equipped with 40-millimeter drivers and a 50-millimeter precision neodymium magnet for excellent sound quality. Experience adventures at a higher level and win even more easily - no murmur will surprise you anymore. K19 offer perfect synchronization of sound and image - you know that sometimes only fractions of seconds separate you from winning.

Clear conversations

Communication with the team is very important in setting strategy, but also in building friendships. The microphone that the K19 Camou is equipped with has a noise cancellation function so that ambient sounds do not interfere with your gameplay. In addition, it will capture your every word in great quality - clear and crisp sound is the basis of conversation.

Ergonomics and comfort

ONIKUMA K19 Camou are designed for seasoned gamers - several hours of gameplay, in which the fate of your character is at stake, is an important issue. For this reason, the headband of the headphones has been padded with soft cushions covered in friendly eco-leather with a pleasant texture. The same material is also covered by the cushions located on the left and right earpieces - they are also made of shape-memorizing foam to best fit your head and lie comfortably even after several hours of gaming.

Stylish design and durability

Add points to your style with the ONIKUMA K19 Camou! The futuristic, geometric design and white elements covered in precise drawings with red elements will not only put you in a good mood with their style, but will also be a cool addition to your gaming setup! What's more, behind this spendy look are durable, solid materials - including an aluminum headband! - thanks to which you can be sure that your favorite headphones will accompany you in many battles!
