Mcdodo WF-1720 multifunction accessory kit

No more problems with incompatible charging cable. McDodo offers an extremely practical solution that will allow you to charge most of the mobile devices on the market with a single cable! How is this possible? The 3 adapters you will find in the set will allow you to create as many as 6 combinations, allowing you to customize the cable's connectors for your devices. The kit includes a micro USB, Lightning and USB adapter - all of which will connect to the USB-C cable you'll find in the package. The kit also comes with a convenient case to store all your accessories, including nano SIM or TF cards, and a key to help you conveniently remove them from your phone. No more carrying tangled cables - pack your essentials in your pocket and enjoy wide compatibility in the smallest of ways!

Instant charging of any device

Now you can charge your devices even faster. The cable supports 60 watts of power, ensuring safe and fast charging. The adapters are also tailored for fast charging, so your devices are safe and you don't have to worry about compatibility. All items in the kit support SCP, AFC, OPPO, VOOC, VIVO, QC2.0/QC3.0/QC4.0 protocols, so you can charge mobile devices of all kinds without worry.

Convenient card storage

You will find a case that will allow you to conveniently store all the accessories included in the kit. Noteworthy is the special compartment for cards: 1 nano SIM and 1 TF, as well as a key with the help of which you will remove your cards from the phone. Such a solution will be great, for example, when traveling, when you need to quickly flip your card and want to be guaranteed that you will not accidentally lose it.

Instant data transmission

That's not all! With the help of adapters, you can also flip your data between different devices. In no time at all, you'll be able to show your friends your vacation photos and videos or share your favorite music with them!

Aesthetic design

You can fit all your accessories in a lightweight and handy case. Its transparent design gives the product an original character. What's more, the whole set is small, weighing only about 40 grams, so you can successfully fit it in your pocket or pouch. Have it always with you and be ready for any situation!
