Mini flashlight Supfire S11-X, 700lm, USB

Mini flashlight

The Superfire S11-X is a compact flashlight that you can take anywhere with you. It will fit into your pocket, backpack, purse or even a pouch. The flashlight is made of highly durable aircraft-grade aluminum, characterized by high resistance to damage and wear.

Fast charging

The flashlight is powered by a built-in 1500 mAh battery. The battery can be charged very quickly using a micro USB port. You don't need a special charger to charge the flashlight - just plug the micro USB cable into a powerbank, charger or computer. When using the flashlight, the status of the battery charge is indicated on the LED backlight: green color means that the battery charge level is sufficient; red color indicates that the battery needs to be charged (less than 10%).

Powerful light

The Jingrui XD's powerful LED provides a strong light and features a long life, so you don't have to worry about replacing the LED often. The light has a brightness of 1100 lumens. The flashlight has 5 light modes. 3 modes are used to control the brightness (strong, medium, weak), and the other two are used to activate the strobe light or SOS. The flashlight switch is used to switch between modes.
