HDMI-D Male to HDMI-A Male Cable Vention AGIBF 4K HD 1m

The HDMI-D to HDMI-A cable from Vention AGIBF supports 4K resolution and HDR technology, ensuring excellent image quality. It also stands out with its wide compatibility, allowing you to easily connect, for example, a gaming console to a portable monitor or a camera to a video capture card. There are also two display modes available - duplication or screen extension. The cable is also very durable - its gold-plated connectors are resistant to corrosion and wear, and the PVC coating protects it from damage. It will serve you well for a long time!

Fantastic Image Quality

Vention AGIBF is an HDMI 2.0 cable that offers 4K resolution and a refresh rate of 60 Hz, providing unparalleled smoothness in displayed images and exceptional detail richness. Additionally, HDR technology guarantees vivid, vibrant colors. The 18 Gbps bandwidth is also worth mentioning. Furthermore, the cable enables simultaneous transmission of both video and audio - you don't need to buy additional cables.
