HDMI-D Male to HDMI-A Male Cable Vention AGIBH 4K HD 2m

The HDMI-D to HDMI-A cable from Vention AGIBH supports 4K resolution and HDR technology, ensuring excellent image quality. It also boasts broad compatibility, making it easy to connect a gaming console to a portable monitor or a camera to a video capture card, for example. There are also two display modes available: duplication or screen extension. The cable is highly durable, with its gold-plated connectors resistant to corrosion and wear, and a PVC coating protecting it from damage. It will serve you well for a long time!

Fantastic Image Quality

Vention AGIBH is an HDMI 2.0 cable that offers 4K resolution and a refresh rate of 60 Hz, providing unmatched smoothness and exceptional detail richness in displayed images. Additionally, HDR technology ensures vivid, vibrant colors. The cable's 18 Gbps bandwidth is noteworthy as well. Furthermore, the cable enables simultaneous transmission of both video and audio, eliminating the need for additional cables.
