4K DisplayPort to HDMI Cable 2m Vention HAGBH (Black)

Experience top-quality visuals with the Vention DP to HDMI cable, supporting a 4K@30Hz resolution. It delivers detailed imagery and fantastic audio quality, eliminating the need for multiple cables to create a cinematic experience in the comfort of your home!

Versatile Application

This cable works seamlessly with devices like laptops and computers, enabling screen mirroring on a large display. This not only allows you to enjoy high-quality entertainment but also effectively showcase your projects during office work. Additionally, the Extension mode is at your disposal, enhancing your daily computer tasks' efficiency.

Stable Signal Transmission

A high-quality chip ensures stable data transmission, resulting in a smooth audio-visual experience without interruptions or disruptions. The corrosion-resistant, gold-plated connectors positively impact the transmission quality. Equipped with a special locking mechanism, they stay securely in place, alleviating concerns about accidental signal loss.
